HEADLINE: EMBRACE THE FIRE. DESTROY THE STENCH.

(Image suggestion: A dynamic, fierce visual of a dragon-like motif or an aggressive character, perhaps with glowing eyes, tearing through a cloud of green, putrid mist.)

Your breath. Your confidence. Are they aligned?
Or does a hidden enemy lurk, ready to sabotage your every move?
Plaque Slayer. We don't just clean. We conquer.
And we've forged a new weapon.

DEATH TO BAD BREATH.

HEADLINE: THE MOMENT MATTERS. DON'T LET IT ROT.

You know that gut-punch feeling. The humiliation. The hot date that went cold. The pitch that crashed. All because of a silent assassin: bad breath. It's not just an inconvenience. It's a confidence killer. It weakens you. It holds you back.

Life moves at warp speed. You're chasing wins. Dodging curveballs. Grinding for every inch. But one slip. One enemy sneaks past. Your confidence gets ripped out from under you.

This isn't a problem to ignore. It's a battle to win.

We built a weapon. Not a polite mint. Not a timid paste. We built a beast.

Introducing DRAGON'S BREATH. Your new war-dog. Your silent hype man.
